Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore is a D.O.C.G. sparkling wine produced exclusively in the hills of the Conegliano Valdobbiadene zone; it is made from the Glera grape variety. The denomination is made up of 15 communes (municipal areas) and takes its name from the zone's twin capitals: Conegliano and Valdobbiadene. Each winery, by skilfully mixing the grapes from the various micro-zones of the area, creates the blends ("cuvées") that act as ambassadors for its own, distinctive winemaking philosophy. Conegliano Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore may be enjoyed in Brut, Extra Dry and Dry versions, classified according to their level of residual sugar.*

Valentini is the most important winery in Abruzzo whose fame is known worldwide for the high quality of its wines: Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo and Trebbiano d'Abruzzo. The company cultivates 70 hectares of vineyards to produce only 50,000 bottles per year, obtained with a system based on craftsmanship and respect for nature.*

In the 1920s the Marchese Mario Incisa della Rocchetta dreamt of creating a 'thoroughbred' wine and for him, as for all the aristocracy of the time, the ideal was Bordeaux. This is how he described it in a letter to the esteemed wine critic, Luigi Veronelli dated 11 June 1974: "...the origins of my experiment date back to the years between 1921 and 1925 when, as a student in Pisa and often a guest of the Salviati Dukes in Migliarino, I drank a wine produced from one of their vineyards...which had the same unmistakable "bouquet" as an aged Bordeaux...."*

The name Quintarelli is synonymous with excellence, but also tradition, patience and authenticity. This humble domain produces Amaroni that are unrivalled. Giuseppe Quintarelli himself is considered the father of Amarone. The first Quintarelli labels were handwritten by Giorgio Gioco, famous chef in the heart of Verona that has made the history of enogastronomy. Besides this elegant calligraphic signature, the most important wines, such as the Riserva ones, are also numbered by hand as precious collector's treasures.
